

Come let us Grow Together: Even my Hands, have Stretched out the Heavens

Come let us Grow Together is a weekly series that deals with the many topical categories that exist within the Word of God. The purpose of this series is to grow in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding in things pertaining to God.

Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. (Isa 45:11-12)

God made the earth and by his hands did he stretch out the heavens.

And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: (Eph 3:9)

God created all things by Jesus Christ of whom he is. For God made the earth and by his hands did he stretch out the heavens.

But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; (Heb 10:12)

It was the Son of man, the flesh of God, that sat down on the right hand of God. Not as two individuals in the Godhead, but as the expressed visible image of the invisible God.

Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; (Heb 1:3)

There isn't any such thing as a "God the Son" who eternally was at the right hand of the Father.

Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. (Matt 26:64)

It was the Son of man, the flesh of God, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, when he had by himself purged our sins, that is sat down on the right hand of God. Not before the sacrifice, nor before the purging of our sins was he at the right hand of God, because the Word was not made flesh until the fulness of the time was come.

But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. (Gal 4:4-5)

Thus the Word made flesh, who is the Son of man, after purging our sins is sat down on the right hand of God. From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. (Heb 10:13)
